v.

Civil Action No. 2:05CV-887-MEF

Prison Health Services, et al,

Defendants

Motion For Extention Of Time
To Respond To The Courts Order
In The Instant Complaint Dated
JANUARY 20, 2006...

For good cause, plaintiff Robert L. McCray comes now requesting this Honorable Court to allow an extention of time for plaintiff to respond to the Courts order in this pleading of JANUARY 20, 2006.

Plaintiff was released on parole JANUARY 23, 2006 conditioned on plaintiff beinging treated for his prostate cancer condition at the Veterans Administration Hospital AT Tuskegee Alabama Appointment sheduled for 1-25-06 at Tuskegee And 2-1-06 at Veterans Administration Hospital AT Montgomery, Alabama.

Upon his release plaintiff was without access to material reference to duly respond to the court order and without transportation initially to reach his proposed dwelling at Faith Crusade Accommodation in Montgomery

Therefore, unable to timely respond as desired and asks the court, given the afore unusual circumstance to allow an extension for plaintiff to respond. This court's consideration would earnestly be appreciated.

Respectfully submitted
